

As a Broadcaster for 20 years I'am very upset with what appears to be threats by the FCC to blame all broadcasters for indecency violations that only a few broadcasters have committed. Please don't blame the entire industry for a few action. I agree the violators must and should be punished,why not place the burden of proof on those violators and not the entire radio and television industry. Thank you for your time. Pat Baldwin